

Installation Instructions.

Mattress Covers are installed just like a fitted sheet: simply pull the elasticized fitting band under the mattress on all four sides, so that the sleeping surface is even on top and any excess material is collected underneath. When it's time to remove the cover, simply pull the elasticized fitting band out from under the corners of the mattress.